This requirement is:     Temporary             Long-Term

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- Upon submitting this application, I can confirm that all waste has been diligently sorted in order to divert recycling and organic materials away from the garbage, yet the non-hazardous medical waste still exceeds the garbage cart's capacity.
- I understand that I may be required to provide confirmation from a physician that a medical condition results in a volume of garbage that exceeds the assigned garbage cart's capacity.
- Should this exemption request be granted, I understand that:
  - All waste must continue to be sorted in order to divert recycling and organic materials away from the garbage.
  - I will notify the Town of Comox:
    - If this exemption is no longer needed.
    - If I move, as this exemption applies only to the address indicated on this application. Call 250-339-5410 or Email publicworks@comox.ca
  - The Town of Comox may change the garbage limit and other curbside collection requirements, as well as the terms for this Medical Waste Exemption.

I understand and agree to the Terms and Conditions outlined above and hereby certify that the information provided in this application is true and accurate.
